

I spend my lifetime loving you

Compositor: Yvan Esmanne- Author: Mélanie George & Yvan Esmanne)

In spite of what you've done and all your right reasons
I spend my lifetime loving you
I keep you by my side. With the secrets you hide
I spend my lifetime loving you
All that I have all that I am
I give it up on loving you
On loving you

May be that's my fate May be I 'am too weak
But now is too late.
Can't even fix it
I gave you my heart And Every Breath I take
It hurts me so bad
But my feelings are.
Not fake

Don't ask me for mercy .Don't try to expiate
May be you feel guilty.
But I'm the one I hate
You are driving me insane .Torturing me inside
And I cannot stand
When you tell me we'll.
Be fine

In spite of all your lies. I give us one more try
Because I can't Help Loving You
I forgive all your mistake and all the sins you make
Because I can't Help Loving You
All that I have all that I am
I give it up on loving you. On loving you
